Consumers ages 16 to 26 want to shop — and hang — in person

Meet me at the mall:
the International Council of Shopping Centers

According to a 2023 survey conducted by the International Council of Shopping Centers, about 50% of respondents in that age group said they shop at brick-and-mortar stores 30% or more of the time for convenience.

The immediacy of touching, trying out and activity. But the popularity of in-store browsing, while in-person shopping is on the rise.

For 25-year-old Nicole Tan of West Hollywood, online shopping is boring, while in-person shopping is more exciting.

The high-stakes decision to charge the actor comes more than two years after Baldwin accidentally shot cinematographer Halyna Hutchins and director Joel Souza, who was hit in the shoulder, recovered.

A once-rising star’s tragic fall
The future seemed bright for Kristin Jeanette-Meyers. Then it all unraveled.

Kristin Jeanette-Meyers made a career showcasing American darkness behind its outward facade. As an anchor and reporter for Court TV and CBS News in the 90s, she specialized in the legal sagas that transfixed the nation, such as the O.J. Simpson murder trial for Court TV.

Atkins joins the race for governor in 2024 engaged, he is also among those in the state's judicial branch.

More California students claim seats in the fall class as enrollment increases

UC increased the number of enrolled students across ethnic and racial categories. Asian American and Pacific Islanders made up 16.5% of UC undergraduates in fall 2023, compared to 17.4% the previous year. UC increased the number of enrolled students across ethnic and racial categories, with Asian Americans making up 16.5% of the student body in fall 2023, compared to 17.4% the previous year.

A once-rising star’s tragic fall
The future seemed bright for Kristin Jeanette-Meyers. Then it all unraveled.

Kristin Jeanette-Meyers made a career showcasing American darkness behind its outward facade. As an anchor and reporter for Court TV and CBS News in the 90s, she specialized in the legal sagas that transfixed the nation, such as the O.J. Simpson murder trial for Court TV.

Atkins joins the race for governor in 2024 engaged, he is also among those in the state's judicial branch.

More California students claim seats in the fall class as enrollment increases

UC increased the number of enrolled students across ethnic and racial categories. Asian American and Pacific Islanders made up 16.5% of UC undergraduates in fall 2023, compared to 17.4% the previous year. UC increased the number of enrolled students across ethnic and racial categories, with Asian Americans making up 16.5% of the student body in fall 2023, compared to 17.4% the previous year.

A once-rising star’s tragic fall
The future seemed bright for Kristin Jeanette-Meyers. Then it all unraveled.

Kristin Jeanette-Meyers made a career showcasing American darkness behind its outward facade. As an anchor and reporter for Court TV and CBS News in the 90s, she specialized in the legal sagas that transfixed the nation, such as the O.J. Simpson murder trial for Court TV.

Atkins joins the race for governor in 2024 engaged, he is also among those in the state's judicial branch.

More California students claim seats in the fall class as enrollment increases

UC increased the number of enrolled students across ethnic and racial categories. Asian American and Pacific Islanders made up 16.5% of UC undergraduates in fall 2023, compared to 17.4% the previous year. UC increased the number of enrolled students across ethnic and racial categories, with Asian Americans making up 16.5% of the student body in fall 2023, compared to 17.4% the previous year.