Deebo Samuel waves goodbye to Eagles fans during the 49ers’ road win over Philadelphia last month. For almost a full year, the 49ers had been thinking they would face anything for granted. But it’s ahead in the playoffs, not supposed Vegas appears wide open. To state the obvious: The path to Las will say it, so it takes a retired player gushed this week on KNBR. “No one would play the Packers and Lions to get to the Super Bowl,” Steve Young said, invoking the nickname for "If you were expected to go 0-16 in a month, that would be the Packers and Lions to get to the Super Bowl.” Steve Young said, invoking the nickname for "Beckham house," the 49ers’ one-bedroom apartment in Las Vegas appears wide open. You are expected to look ahead in the playoffs, not supposed to take anything for granted. But it’s human nature to care about payback, and for almost a full year, the 49ers had been thinking they would face "This is proving to be a really cool way of exploring how ground floors might be different than how they were before," said bakery owner Matt Kosoy, who signed the lease with Embarcadero Center owner Bos- lords. Dubbed Vacant to Vibrant, the initiative is one of many that administration have rolled out over the past year to try to energize San Francisco’s commercial core. The program tries to bring the entrepreneurial flair of trendy neighborhoods into the skyscraper zone, using a mix of grants to businesses and live from participating land- lease from participating land- ists while also enrolling 200 additional stu- students who transferred in from other dis- tricts while also enrolling 200 additional stu- dents who transferred in from other dis- tricts while also enrolling 200 additional stu- dents who transferred in from other dis- tricts while also enrolling 200 additional stu- dents who transferred in from other dis- tricts while also enrolling 200 additional stu- dents who transferred in from other dis- tricts while also enrolling 200 additional stu- dents who transferred in from other dis- tricts while also enrolling 200 additional stu- dents who transferred in from other dis- tricts while also enrolling 200 additional stu- students granted a transfer to another near- by district approved 950 requests for a transfer out, about 200 more than would be expected based on historic trends. In the first semester alone, the 34,000-stu- dent district approved 950 requests for a transfer out, about 200 more than would be expected based on historic trends. In the first semester alone, the 34,000-stu- dent district approved 950 requests for a transfer out, about 200 more than would be expected based on historic trends. In the first semester alone, the 34,000-stu- student district approved 950 requests for a transfer out, about 200 more than would be expected based on historic trends. In the first semester alone, the 34,000-stu- student district approved 950 requests for a transfer out, about 200 more than would be expected based on historic trends. In the first semester alone, the 34,000-stu- student district approved 950 requests for a transfer out, about 200 more than would be expected based on historic trends. In the first semester alone, the 34,000-stu- student district approved 950 requests for a transfer out, about 200 more than would be expected based on historic trends. In the first semester alone, the 34,000-stu- student district approved 950 requests for a transfer out, about 200 more than would be expected based on historic trends.