THOUSANDS MARCH FOR RACIAL JUSTICE IN D.C.

DOWNTOWN RALLY: March in San Diego turns contentious when ‘irritant’ is sprayed

BY ALEX RIGGINS

Thousands of people rallied at the Lincoln Memorial during Friday’s March on Washington, The protest took place on the anniversary of the 1963 March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom and the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.’s “I Have A Dream” speech.

There was a peaceful moment when the Washington Monument was lit up with the colors of the Pan-African flag. However a day later the event was marred by pepper spray and some tests and violence that left two soldiers dead.

The soldiers were conducting “routine training” at the crash occurred at San Clemente Island, which is about 20 miles west of San Diego and controlled by the military’s 160th Special Operations Aviation Regiment, the official said.

The aircraft involved was a HH-60G Pave Hawk, a search-and-rescue helicopter used to conduct operations to rescue downed pilots in battle.

The aircraft went down near the command of Naval Base Coronado.

The official spoke anonymously because they are not authorized to comment publicly. The incident is under investigation.
