4 N.C. officers slain

Fired on serving warrant; 4 injured; shooter also dead

By Erik Verduzco and Peter Smith
The Associated Press

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Four police officers serving a warrant for a felon wanted for possessing a firearm were killed and four other officers were wounded in a shootout Monday at a North Carolina home, police said. Some of the officers who rushed to the Charlotte neighborhood to rescue the first wave of downed officers were wounded as a second shooter began firing on them after they killed the wanted man, Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Chief Johnny Jennings said. "Today we lost some heroes who were out simply

The Golden Knights' entertainment team is always thinking of "the next logical thing." The next logical thing is a giant, menacing dragon taking up residency at T-Mobile

Arena.

Lacking a name but already making her mark (she is female), the grinning, golden beast belches a blast of strobos and steam, simulating smoke and fire after every Golden

Source: Murder suspect ate victim's eye, ear

By Brett Clarkson
Las Vegas Review-Journal

A murder suspect arrested Sunday morning near the Arts District ate parts of his alleged victim, including at least an eyeball and an ear, a source told the Las Vegas Review-Journal.

The 31-year-old man was arrested on a murder charge in connection with the death of an unidentified man he was allegedly involved in a fight with near Las Vegas and Charleston boulevards.

According to the Metropolitan Police Department, Colin Czech was arrested after police responded at about 4:45 a.m. Sunday to a report of a "physical altercation" between two men in the 1100 block of Las Vegas Boulevard South.

Officers arrived and found the men near the 300 block of East Charleston, at South Third Street. One of them was "unresponsive and bleeding from the head," police said.
